

MEET THE NEW BOARD MEMBERS

SUZANNE DAY

Suzanne is the proud parent of two WSMS alumni, Carter (11) and Gigi (9), and served as WSMS Director of Admissions from 2008 to 2013. Before joining the WSMS administrative team, she volunteered as the WSMS Parents Association co-president for two years and worked on the WSMS admissions committee. Suzanne received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of North Carolina and worked as an oncology clinical pharmacy specialist for 12 years prior to starting her family. Suzanne and her husband, Doug, recently relocated to Washington, Connecticut. They will continue to spend time in the city and remain involved in many NYC-based organizations.

MAGGAN DAILEADER

Originally from Stockholm, Sweden, Maggan has BS and MS degrees in Accounting from the University of Florida, and an MBA in Finance from New York University. She spent sixteen years in finance and banking at IBM, Scotia Capital, and The Royal Bank of Scotland, then changed careers to become a yoga teacher, an integrative therapist, and a stay-at-home mom. Maggan and her husband, Tim, are parents to Madeleine and Declan, who began their third year at WSMS this fall. Among many roles as a WSMS parent, Maggan served as the co-chair for the Spring Fair (twice) and interviewed applicant parents.

KATHLEEN FRIERY

Kathleen is currently Senior Producer at Braun Production. She has more than 20 years' experience as a network news magazine producer for shows including 20/20, Good Morning America, Connie Chung Tonight, and Anderson Cooper 360. She has won four Emmy Awards (for Anderson Cooper), and contributed to coverage that won Peabody Awards and a DuPont Award. Kathleen graduated from Potsdam College with a BA in Political Science and has a master's degree in journalism from NYU. Kathleen is married to WABC anchor Bill Ritter, and their daughter, Ella, started her second year at WSMS in the fall.

MEET THE NEW BOARD MEMBERS

AIMA RAZA

Aima is co-founder and President of the Peace Project Inc. (PINC), a non-profit organization that seeks to create safe and peaceful communities in countries around the world by promoting peace education in schools, interfaith projects, and sponsoring various community-based initiatives. Prior to PINC, Aima worked as a management consultant focusing primarily on the financial services industry. She graduated from Fordham University School of Law in 2003 and holds a master's in Global Affairs from NYU. Aima's twin boys, Rafay and Mikhail Khan, are in their second year at WSMS. She is married to Agha S. Khan.

MICHAEL SECKLER

Mike has been an entrepreneur since 1996. His current business is Euclidean Technologies, an innovative investment management firm that uses cutting-edge statistical computing to evaluate individual companies as potential long-term investments. Earlier in his career he co-founded Employease, which was acquired by ADP. Mike graduated from Williams with a dual major in Geology and History. Mike and his wife, Caren Pasquale Seckler, have three daughters: Sophia, who graduated from WSMS in 2012, Maggie, who completed her last year at WSMS this past spring, and Elizabeth, who began her first year at WSMS in the fall.

JOANNA HAGAN REGO

Joanna is the mother of two current WSMS students: James, who began at WSMS in 2011, and Josie, who began this fall in the Two's Program. She is an active WSMS volunteer, most recently co-chairing the 50th Anniversary Celebration & Auction. Joanna received her BA in English Literature from Brown University. Before having children she worked for 15 years as a theater producer, overseeing such productions as Martin Short's Fame Becomes Me on Broadway, Nickelodeon's Blue's Clues tour, and Wayne Brady in Las Vegas. She is married to Matthew Rego.

CORDELL G. SPENCER

Cory Spencer was born and raised in Montreal, Canada. He attended the University of Western Ontario and Harvard Business School, and spent over twenty years at Morgan Stanley, where he was a member of the Management Committee and the Operating Committee. Currently he is focusing on pro bono work, parenthood, and a music career. Cory and his wife, Elizabeth Canino, have two children who attended WSMS: Katie, who is in fourth grade, and Patrick, who completed his final year at WSMS last June.